

LAURA VALDIVIESO JIMÉNEZ

Laura Valdivieso Jimenez is a Lawyer from the Pontificia Javeriana University in Bogota, with a Postgraduate Studies on International Business from Los Andes University and Leadership Studies for Senior Management and the American Legal System of the Institute of International Law in Washington.

Deputy Minister Valdivieso served as Vice President of Development and Regional Investment in the Chamber of Commerce of Bucaramanga. She was a partner of the firm Research & Opportunities International Strategy Consultants, General Secretary of the Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Development, Executive Director of the Colombian Association of Edible Fats and Oils Industry and was Deputy Director of Foreign Trade of the DIAN (Directorate on National Taxes and Customs).

Since August 2018, she has served as Deputy Minister of Foreign Trade of Colombia.